

AMERICAN LITERATURE

AT THE REMNANT TRUST

An Ivy Tech Community College American Literature I class at The Remnant Trust in the Jeffersonville Carnegie Library

The Remnant Trust is a public educational foundation that shares an expanding collection of historical original and 1st edition works relating to liberty with some pieces dating as early as 1250.

AMERICAN LITERATURE I

This course surveys major American poets and prose writers from the early Colonial period to the time of the Civil War. Works to be covered include:

- The Iroquois Creation Story
- Thomas Paine's Common Sense
- Washington Irving's Rip Van Winkle
- Ralph Waldo Emerson's Nature
- Poems & essays by Edgar Allen Poe
- Walt Whitman's Leaves of Grass
- Henry David Thoreau's Walden
- Poems & letters by Emily Dickinson

A TRANSFER COURSE

This is a 3-credit college course that transfers to public Indiana colleges and universities as part of TransferIN.

INSTRUCTOR

Kris Bex
President of The Remnant Trust

LOCATION

Carnegie Library
129 East Court Avenue in Jeffersonville

TIME

Tuesdays, 6:00 p.m.- 8:45 p.m.
Spring classes start January 14
Classes meet for 16 weeks.

INFORMATION

Call 246-3301, extension 4251
email ryork@ivytech.edu

Go online at www.ivytech.edu/sellersburg

YOUR INVITATION TO ENROLL IN A SPECIAL COLLEGE COURSE IN THIS HISTORIC SETTING!