

The Nation

Before the King James Bible: English Language and National Identity, 1400-1650

Wednesday, April 10 ▾ 7 p.m. ▾ Neff Hall, Room 101

Join UC² and the IPFW Medieval Studies program for a conversation with Damian Fleming, assistant professor of English and coordinator of the Medieval Studies program, and Suzanne LaVere, assistant professor of history, about the evolution of the English language and its relation to national identity. For the pleasure of fans of rare books, part of the Remnant Trust display, an edition of the King James Bible published in 1611, will be at the event for attendees to see and hold.
